

Angel David (Rilke Mix)

Jarboe

i prayed on bended knees through tears and an angel was sent to me. still i was blind and i could not fully see him he opened in radiance to me completely but in my ignorance i slapped him shut and defeated all my happiness.
and now time is suspended and i pray for a second chance that may never come for a second chance to prove how i've seen, how i've changed.
i cannot go on without your love everyone forgive me-- i've lost the one thing that mattered.
