Now we're here

Standing in your tears

[Hook:] Now we're here Standing in your tears Nothing remains Just fire and flames Fire and flames Fire and flames [Verse 1:] Yeah! Can you stitch back a ripped heart Or when it's gone is it torn apart? I feel allured by the dark like Damian Crashed on another planet just the lonely alien. Trying to get these motherfucking doubts out my cranium I know I'm a make it but this pain's got me caving in. These industry niggas I've developed such a hate for them Swear I want to kill them but my momma told me pray for them Waiting on the day when me and my niggas rocking stadiums But we've grown apart now I cannot relate to them, nah... Uh! Now who the fuck says life's fair Niggas turn their backs on you when you need them right there Grandmama told me stress'll give me white hair I can feel something evil lurking in the night's air My dreams seem distant but they right there Pray my kids don't grow to inherit my nightmares [Hook:] Now we're here Standing in your tears Nothing remains Just fire and flames Fire and flames Fire and flames [Verse 2:] Yeah! Blow an O with that L.A. weed Feeling stressed cause' I fucked up with L.A. Reid Plus I got to share the bad news with my scene Niggas looking at me like I won't succeed, damn! And it was all good just a week ago Hope these pussy ass niggas decompose Turn the stereo up and let the speakers blow Trying to block the bullshit out blowing reefer smoke I need to find a shrink to confide to Why worry knowing God walk beside you God told niggas I'll advise you Don't sleep on Jarren, he's creeping right beside you So how you balance hip-hop and family I swear to God I think my wife don't understand me Her music used to be therapeutic Now a nigga going crazy about to lose it. [Hook:]

Nothing remains
Just fire and flames
Fire and flames
Fire and flames
