

Reckless Forgiver

Jars of Clay

Loneliness, loneliness, it won't last forever
Happiness, happiness, wait in line

Every time I look in the mirror
I'm in a shadow of doubt
Maybe I'm as lost as the next guy
Just have to find, just have to find out

All I want is peace like a river
Long life of sanity, love that won't leave too soon
Someone to pull out the splitters
The reckless forgiver
Know that I'm talking to you

I made a mess, made a mess
Of the heart I borrowed
So get undressed, get undressed
Laugh tomorrow

Every time I look in the mirror
I'm in a shadow of doubt
Maybe I'm as lost as the next guy
Just have to find

All I want is peace like a river
Long life of sanity, love that won't leave too soon
Someone to pull out the splitters
The reckless forgiver
Know that I'm talking to you
I'd leave it all for you

All I want is peace like a river
Long life of sanity, love that won't leave too soon
Someone to pull out the splitters
The reckless forgiver
I'm talking to you

All I want is peace like a river
Long life of sanity, love that won't leave too soon
Someone to pull out the splitters
The reckless forgiver

Know that I'm talking to you

I'd leave it all for you
Know that I'm talking to you

I'd leave it all for you
I'm talking to you
