

Homewrecker!

Jarvis Cocker

A homewrecker stalks the streets of the city
Avoidin' the issue, still tryin' to believe
He's biggest, the strongest, the fittest, the longest
And his wife and his kids are asleep

Oh, here comes the homewrecker
(Homewrecker)
Goin' down with all hands tonight, yeah
Here comes the homewrecker
(Homewrecker)
What a tragic waste of life

And don't you know?
(And don't you know?)
You're just like everybody else

And don't you know?
(And don't you know?)
Everyone fails, or they fall
Let you down, one and all
Everyone, yesiree, everybody except me

Ah, here comes the homewrecker
(Homewrecker)
Goin' down with all hands tonight
Yeah, here comes the homewrecker
(Homewrecker)
What a tragic waste of life

And don't you know?
(And don't you know?)
You're just like everybody else

And don't you know?
(And don't you know?)
Oh, they all sell out in the end
All grow up and drop their friends

Face the facts, knuckle down
Capitulate and scrape and bow
Everybody, everyone
Alles meschen, tout le monde

Eeverybody, yesiree
Everybody, everybody, everybody
Everybody except me
