Jason Aldean

Lookin' back at the dead ends and the detours
All I could do was long for a straighter line
Yeah, I was lost, I had no way of knowin'
Where the twists and turns were goin'
But sometimes, just gotta let the road wind

Could it have been easier?
Yeah, a little smoother, right, maybe so
But lying here with you
Would I change one thing 'bout that road?
No

I believe things happen for a reason
Even though you might not see it at the time
'Cause now I know, every plan that came unraveled
Every crooked path I traveled in my life
Led me here, to your side

Could it have been easier?
Yeah, a little smoother, right, maybe so
But lying here with you
Would I change one thing 'bout that road?
No

Yeah, I finally found you

Could it have been easier?
Yeah, a little smoother, right, maybe so
But lying here with you
Would I change one thing 'bout that road?

Oh, it could have been easier
Yeah, a little smoother, right, maybe so
But lying here with you
Would I change one thing 'bout that road?
