

Tonight Looks Good on You

Jason Aldean

You ain't got a dress that I don't like
You ain't got a pair of jeans that don't fit you just right
There's not a minute in the day
That you don't knock me out, you don't blow me away
But girl, now that the sun is going down
Looking at you right and now, baby

Somethin' about that southern sky sitting back behind that blur
It goes perfect with your eyes
Girl, tonight looks good on you
It's something about the way you're smiling
Making the stars go round on you
I just gotta tell you baby
Tonight looks good on you

I can taste the midnight on your lips
Makes me just wanna lean in for another kiss
Wind blowing your hair around
Girl it makes me want to let you down
You've been beautiful a million times
But I've never seen you looking like this no

Somethin' about that southern sky sitting back behind that blur
It goes perfect with your eyes
Girl, tonight looks good on you
It's something about the way you're smiling
Making the stars go round on you
I just gotta tell you baby
Tonight looks good on you

Looks so good on your skin
I don't ever, no I never, I don't ever, ever want to give up, baby

Somethin' about that southern sky sitting back behind that blur
It goes perfect with your eyes
Girl, tonight looks good on you
It's something about the way you're smiling
Making the stars go round on you
I just gotta tell you baby
Tonight looks good on you

Tonight looks good on you
I just gotta tell you baby
