

Who I Really Am

Jason Castro

We have come so far
But I don't know who you really are
We feel so close but really we just met

We met in Hollywood
Scared but you seemed like you understood
'Cause through the crowded room I saw a sign

If I show you who I really am
There's no need to shield your eyes
I am in need of a real salvation
Does that take you by surprise?
If I show you who I really am

We love like bumper cars
I turn around and there you are
But baby, please don't push too far away

If I show you who I really am
There's no need to shield your eyes
I am in need of a real salvation
Does that take you by surprise?
If I show you who I really am

Here we are alone
Just you and me on the telephone
Are you sure you wanna know
Who I am?

If I show you who I really am
There's no need to shield your eyes

Let me show you who I really am
There's no need to shield your eyes
I am in need of a real salvation
Does that take you by surprise?
If I show you who I really am

This is who I really am
