

Hide and Seek

Jason Chen

Spend all my life with you on my mind,
The one I need to find, I'm an unlucky lover but I can't explain why.
It's like nobody's right, it's always the time
But I'd search to the end of the world if I can make you mine.

I close my eyes and count to ten,
And you can run and hide, you can run and hide.
And even if we've never met,
I can find your love, yeah, I will find your love

Till then we're playing hide and seek
I'm running and running,
Running till I fall in suddenly
In love with you.

I've been waiting for you,
So come find me,
You're the one that I want,
The one that I need,
So until then we're playing hide and seek.

Where have you been all of my life?
You know I've been searching,
I've been searching day and night.
Why is my heart turning for you?
Cause this is more than the truth, more than the truth,
Yeah, this is me and you.

I close my eyes and count to ten,
And you can run and hide, you can run and hide.
And even if we've never met,
I can find your love, yeah, I will find your love

Till then we're playing hide and seek
I'm running and running,
Running till I fall in suddenly
In love with you.

I've been waiting for you,
So come find me,
You're the one that I want,
The one that I need,
So until then we're playing hide and seek.

I'm searching for you,
I knew I love you before I met you, baby.
I'm searching for you,
And every day without you is driving me crazy.
I'm searching for you,
I knew I love you before I met you, baby.
I'm searching for you

Till then we're playing hide and seek
I'm running and running,
Running till I fall in suddenly
In love with you.

I've been waiting for you,
So come find me,
You're the one that I want,
The one that I need,
So until then we're playing hide and seek.
