

Invisible

Jason Chen

Ever felt so close, but yet you're so far away?
Ever went down the wrong road?
Well, if I got to go back, there's only one way
Is if you're coming with me;
I'm waiting for you

I'll be standing here with my arms out wide,
but you just keep on passing me by
I could change your life forever
If you would just give me the time

Baby, I'll be staring right at you,
but to you I'm invisible
I could make your heart feel brand new,
Do you even notice me at all?
It's like I'm invisible

Everyone's heart is broken baby nowadays
Cold and shoulders your frozen zero degrees
All of your love was stolen
I can replace everything that's missing
If you let me in

I'll be standing here with my arms out wide,
but you just keep on passing me by
I could change your life forever
If you would just give me the time

Baby, I'll be staring right at you,
but to you I'm invisible
I could make your heart feel brand new,
Do you even notice me at all?
It's like I'm invisible

Let's save each other from this cold, cold world
Promise I'll go anywhere you wanna go
Seal it with a kiss on my lips; let me know
I'm not invisible
And we'll just runaway, runaway, runaway, runaway
And and and runaway, runaway, runaway, runaway
And and and runaway, runaway, runaway, runaway
And and and runaway, runaway, runaway, runaway

Baby, I'll be staring right at you,
but to you I'm invisible
I could make your heart feel brand new,
Do you even notice me at all?
It's like I'm invisible
