

Like It Was Yesterday

Jason Donovan

I remember when I was king and you were queen
Was it oh, so long ago
Was I really seventeen How can I forget the only love I ever knew when every girl I meet is just a counterfeit of you

I remember like it was yesterday
and I'd do anything to get you back again

I never understood
'cause I was always such a fool that even to this day you know, I'm still in love with you How was I to know I had the whole world in my hands
I hope it isn't true you never get a second chance

I remember like it was yesterday
and I'd do anything to get you back again

I remember like it was yesterday
I was just wondering, could you feel the same

I remember like it was yesterday
and I'd do anything to get you back again

I remember like it was yesterday
I was just wondering, could you feel the same

I remember like it was yesterday
