

Waiting To Shine

Jason Eady

I've been up and down this highway and I don't have a single thing to show
Except these words that I'm singing, I found them by the side of the road
Somewhere in Amarillo I think somebody left them behind
Well finders are keepers and I'll take all the keepers I can find

Chorus:

Words are like diamonds
The best ones are the hardest to find
Buried in the bottom of the coal
Just waiting to shine

When I got home this evening I was worried about things she might say
See I've left her alone lately driving on to another place to play
But she just whispered in my ear exactly what I needed to hear tonight
So let tomorrow be tomorrow because I know everything's gonna be alright

(Chorus)

I've got friends and I've got heroes and you know I love them all just the same
But I don't think I've ever told them all the things I need to say
Maybe one day I'll know the words that I'm trying to find
But for now I'll keep on searching, digging deeper down this old coal mine

(Chorus)
