

Sometimes I say things I don't mean
Like it all feels like a dream
It's like someday I'll get caught
Like this is someone I am not
I just open my mouth and the words come out
They never say what I mean cause they don't know about
How the lights blow out or how I should stay down

Cause I gotta believe I didn't do it to myself this time
You didn't leave and I was always right
Cause I would never be that blind
And definitely I didn't slam the door to end the fight
Never ever wanna say goodbye
Cause I just don't get that tongue-tied, or do I?

I know the words don't mean a lot
I get scared when it's all I got
Like the best of me is gone
And you're just blind and holding on
But in the way that you smile when you look straight through
All of the things that I say and what I put you through
I think that it just may be your style
To be the smile that makes me smile
And I, I just want to let you know that
Time is on our side

Cause I gotta believe I didn't do it to myself this time
You didn't leave and I was always right
Cause I would never be that blind
And definitely I didn't slam the door to end the fight
Never ever wanna say goodbye
Cause I just don't get that tongue-tied, or do I?

Maybe I'll get better, I'll start to say the things I mean
Instead of hiding behind words that only make us weak
Oh maybe you can see just who I want to be

Cause I gotta believe I didn't do it to myself this time
You didn't leave and I was always right
Cause I would never be that blind
And definitely I didn't slam the door to end the fight
Never ever wanna say goodbye
Cause I just don't get that tongue-tied, or do I?

And definitely I didn't slam the door to end the fight
Never ever wanna say goodbye
Cause I just don't get that tongue-tied, or do I?
