Little You and I

Jason Mraz

you close your eyes you say goodnight in your own special way y ou rest your head and you rest your mind and there you go there you go so fast, so fast asleep there you are without a ca re when or where but there you are I swear without a care where it is you lay spiraling spaces tangled up in moments of touching time trying to find some somewhere sleeping sideways pockets full of nothin g, head exploding from the mind too much time for dancing in ou r hair sister don't be shy between little you and I mouths in line, tears beside and we're gonna weep in between th e sleep until we float away into broken promises too much too h ard to keep and we would sell our souls to the devil if he promised us hell it's something we already know so well and it's right on, righ t on the tip of our tongue something big that has already begun (something dead but not quite numb) and I'm singing it
