

Unlonely

Jason Mraz

It could be love
And we could be homies
And once you get to know me
I could be your one and only
I could make you unlonely
Oh, we could take it slowly
And we could keep it low-key
I could be your one and only
I could make you unlonely

I've been chasing summer around
Searching for the sunshine
Looking for a good time
Following the good vibes
Listening to intuition as it's happening
Diggin' into life cause at times it can be saddening
Yeah, it could be a grey day
If you're lonely
A little rain suddenly turns heavy
But a whole lot of love can make the clouds go away
Maybe the time for us is now

When the table's set for two
And there's nobody with you
Seeing movies by yourself
Let me be your someone else

It could be love
And we could be homies
Once you get to know me
I could be your one and only
I could make you unlonely
Oh, we could take it slowly
And we could keep it low-key
I could be your one and only
I could make you unlonely

Love, la-la-la, love
Love, la-la, love
One and only, I could make you unlonely

I give you my word although I'm making words up
Unlonely ain't a word, but I don't give a fuck
Cause I'm fresh from the farm where critics can't bother me
Living is tricky as it is so that ain't stoppin' me
You and me, we both agree that no one needs the scrutiny
All we want is peace and love, and honestly you ruin me
With your beautiful smile, and your style continuity

I'd be a fool not to take the opportunity to say:
"Hey! We should be homies
I think we could be bigger than cheese and macaroni
We could keep it sweet like Chachi and Joanie
Oh, maybe just be ourselves: never phony."
Never second guessing the friendship connection
Parallel living, never in possession of your individual personal expression
Together we're just a much better reflection of

Love

And We could be homies
Once you get to know me
I could be your one and only
I could make you unlonely
Oh, we could take it slowly
And we could keep it low-key
I could be your one and only
I could make you unlonely

Love, la-la-la, love
Love, la-la, love
One and only, I could make you unlonely
Love, la-la-la, love
Love, la-la, love
One and only, I could make you unlonely

When the table's set for two
And there's nobody with you
Seeing movies by yourself
Let me be your someone else
If you're spending time alone
If it's just you and your phone
Taking pictures of yourself
Baby, maybe I can help

It could be love
We could be homies
And once you get to know me
I could be your one and only
I could make you unlonely
Oh, we could take it slowly
And we could keep it low-key
I could be your one and only
I could make you unlonely

Love, la-la-la, love
Love, la-la, love
One and only, I could make you unlonely

It could be love
We could be homies (Love, la-la-la, love)
And once you get to know me (Love, la-la, love)
I could be your one and only
I could make you unlonely
