

Just Friends

Jason Reeves

Hey
What did you think I'd say
You're everything that I ever wanted
And this kind of thing doesn't just come around
Every time you go looking for it

I don't wanna be just friends
No
I'll never fake it or pretend
And I don't want another girl 'cause you're the only one I love

I don't wanna be just friends
That's something I can't understand
I don't wanna be just friends
Not now
Not ever
Those 2 words are bullets in my chest
Just friends

Hey
What did you think I'd do
It felt so good waking up beside you
And the way you kiss
So delicate
Doesn't come around and I'm always gonna miss it

I don't wanna be just friends
No
I'll never fake it or pretend
And I don't want another girl 'cause you're the only one I love

I don't wanna be just friends
That's something I can't understand
I don't wanna be just friends
Not now
Not ever
Those 2 words are bullets in my chest
Just friends

Those 2 words are bullets in my chest
And it's never gonna be the same again my love
It's never gonna be the same again

Be just friends
Just friends
Just friends

Don't wanna be just friends
Just friends
Just friends

Don't wanna be just friends
(No)
(Don't wanna be the same again)
Just friends

Just friends

I don't wanna be just friends

Ooh

Ooh

I don't wanna be just friends

Nah

Nah

I don't wanna be just friends

Nah

Nah

Those 2 words are bullets in my chest

Just friends

Bullets in my chest

Bullets in my chest

Just friends
