

Only With You

Jason Reeves

No matter where you wander
No matter what you see
I wanna be the one
You look for me
You fall asleep

No matter where you're going
No matter where you've been
I only want to know
That you'll be coming back again

And when I have you on
My ladder to myself
There won't be no one else
Lover, I'll lay with you
Only with you
Only with you

Are skin are silver shadows
Reflecting all the stars
We shine together cause we fade
When we get far apart

Sunrise in the morning
Moonrise in the dark
It doesn't matter just as long
I am where you are

And when I have you on
You'll have me to yourself
There won't be no one else
Lover, I'll lay with you
Only with you
Only with you

Lover, I'll lay with you
Only with you
Only with you
Only with you

Cause it's you or loveless
I know what I'm fighting for I
Know what I'm fighting for I

Cause it's you or loveless
I know what I'm fighting for I
Know what I'm fighting for I

Cause it's you or loveless
I know what I'm fighting for I
Know what I'm fighting for I

Cause it's you or loveless
