

Reaching

Jason Reeves

Girl, you are like summer rain
Soft and warm and delicate and I am a foolish boy
Tryin' to catch every drop of you on my tongue
But there's just too many and I can't get enough

You're inches from my fingertips
I've come as close as I can get
I'm reaching but the rest is up to you

'Cause I don't ever wanna miss
Being here with you like this
I'm trying but it's all that I can do
I'm reaching but the rest is up to you

Girl, you are the morning sky
Glowing calm with burning light
And as I am waking up
You paint your reflection in my eye
Wonder if you've noticed
I can't look away

You're inches from my fingertips
I've come as close as I can get
I'm reaching but the rest is up to you

'Cause I don't ever wanna miss
Being here with you like this
I'm trying but it's all that I can do
I'm reaching but the rest is up to you

And you say, so you say
It's a brilliance meant to fade
Love is wild like a fire
Burning underneath the rain
But this is not the same

You're inches from my fingertips
I've come as close as I can get
I'm reaching but the rest is up to you

'Cause I don't ever wanna miss
Being here with you like this
I'm trying but it's all that I can do
I'm reaching but the rest is up to you, up to you

Girl, you are like summer rain
Soft and warm and delicate and I am a foolish boy
Tryin' to catch every drop that I
