

Simple Song

Jason Reeves

You're just too good, too good for a song
Every single word gonna come out wrong
I'll keep you in my heart where you belong
You're just too good, too good for a simple song

Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
A simple

I can try to fit your beauty in the verse of two
The color of your eyes when I kiss you
The feeling of your skin on a cool summer night
The taste of your lips on the star light

Nothing I say will ever be right
Cause you're just too good, too good for a song
Every single word gonna come out wrong
I'll keep you in my heart where you belong
You're just too good, too good for a simple song

Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
A simple song

Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
A simple

I can try to catch you on my favorite melody
The one in the morning, the birds sing
I wake until I have you then I set you free
Cause I know that you'll come back to me

But nothing I say will ever be real
Cause you're just too good, too good for a song
Every single word gonna come out wrong
I'll keep you in my heart where you belong
You're just too good, too good for a simple song

Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
A simple song

Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
A simple song

Cause you're just too good, too good for a song
Every single word gonna come out wrong
I'll keep you in my heart where you belong
You're just too good, too good, too good

Just too good, too good for a song
Every single word gonna come out wrong
I'll keep you in my heart where you belong
You're just too good, too good for a simple song

Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
A simple song

Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
Do, do, do, do, do, do
A simple
I can never fit your beauty in the verse of two