

Through The Morning Light

Jason Reeves

Live it up
Don't waste your time, boy
The sky's an ocean white
Soon enough that wave will take you
Down like a sandcastle

Every time you close your eyes
Cause don't you wonder why?
Everything's just shining
Like the stars at night, yeah

Painted by your heart
Beating through your mind

Better find the words to tell her why
You need her smile
Her smile

That sun rise shining down
Through every single cloud you left
We'll leave her in the sand

Sweet water, wash away that smile
And take the wind for a ride
Through the morning light
Til you're sitting on the edge
And you can't feel it anymore, yeah

Live it up
Don't waste your time, boy
The sky's an ocean white
Soon enough that wave will take you
Down like a sandcastle

Every time you close your eyes
Don't you wonder why?
She is all that you find
We'll leave her in the sand

Sweet water, wash away that smile
And take the wind for a ride
Through the morning light
Til you're sitting on the edge
And you can't feel it anymore, yeah

Sitting on the edge
And you can't feel it anymore
Oh yeah

Dada deedeedee, oh
(Dada deedee oh)

Sitting on the edge
And you can't feel it anymore
Yeah
