

Father Of The Fatherless

Jason Upton

I don't know how, to say what i'm feeling.
I don't have words, to write you a song.
But i have this hope and i have this prayer, and i am believing.
Your words are true,
you never leave us alone.
father of the fatherless, come down and rescue us we need you, we need you again friend of the friendless, come down and visit us, we need you, we need you again
how many sons, have cried for their fathers. and how many fathers, have cried like a son now every tear saved through the years in memory's bottle becomes the fine wine, You serve to the children of God
