

I Am Not Ashamed

Jason Upton

Jesus I long to be holy
Jesus I long to be real
In a world of broken people
So many need to be healed

Purify my hands to hold them
Purify my heart to burn with devotion
For You, Lord Jesus, for You

I'm not ashamed of Jesus
My Lord my Lover my Friend
The power to cleanse and redeem us
Is in the blood of the Lamb

Oh how the mighty have fallen
Buried in their filthy rags
Father please turn from your anger
My lips will boast of your ways
Cause, it's all in the blood of the savior
It's all in the love that you have for You're son
And I believe, in Jesus, I believe
