

More Alone

Jason Walker

It's just another day
I'm a little scared
Don't want to walk away
Completely unprepared
I wonder what it's like
I wonder how it feels
To see the other side
To see it all so real

It seems like I've been here so long
I don't know how I'll ever leave
I can't imagine moving on
And giving up everything
Just to be more alone

I'd believe a lie
It's all I really need
To get me through the night
It's all the same to me
I don't need your closure
I don't need your plan
Don't tell me that it's over
Just tell me there's a chance

It seems like I've been here so long
I don't know how I'll ever leave
I can't imagine moving on
And giving up everything
Just to be more alone

More alone
I don't want to be
More alone
I don't want to be

It seems like I've been here so long
I don't know how I'll ever leave
I can't imagine moving on
And giving up everything
Just to be more alone
Just to be
More alone
More alone
Just to be
More alone
