Jason Webley

He goes down
he goes down
one day he's gonna find that stone so bright it's gonna burn away this cloud
he goes down

He goes down
he goes down
one day that wall's gonna crack and fall like raindrops on his crown
he goes down

He's diggin' 'cause a dream once showed a vision of a mother lode waitin' for him in the ground
he goes down

He goes down
he goes down
one day he's gonna see that stone so big it's gonna drive away these hounds well he goes down

he goes down
one day he's gonna stumble that rock's gonna crumble gonna leave him underground
well he goes down

He's diggin' for the family he's diggin' for himself he's diggin' like a holy plow

He's diggin' 'cause a dream once showed
a vision of a mother lode
he goes down

He's diggin' towards breath he's diggin' towards death he's diggin' towards a sacred sound
He goes down
