

Crazy

Javier Colon

Hmmmmmmmm.....hey yea hey...hooooowhooo....baby,

[Verse 1]

Kind of like a summer's breeze, you do exactly as you please,
drop a brother to his knees just for fun.
I think it was the first of May,
girl I can't forget the day, right then and there I knew you were the one.
Do you think that possibly,
you could spend your life with me, cause girl this love is growing, and it's hotter than the sun.

[Chorus:]

I get a little bit crazy baby, everytime you call my name
my heart beats a little bit faster, after, you are in my arms again.
Can't try to fight it,
won't even try to hide it,
emotions falling down like the rain,
I can't find the words to explain it, ain't it, crazy how i fall,
everytime you call my name.

[Verse 2]

It's kind of like a work of art, you shot an arrow through my heart, even though we're worlds apart I can't deny,
it feels like your apart
of me the finish and the start of me, girl you are the heart of me,
and that's no lie,
did I mention that I love you so,
and I just want the world to know, if I could you know I would write your name across the sky.

[Chorus]

Crazy, crazy...
Evertime that your close to me,
I lose control of my sanity, everynight, everyday, every word and you say,
girl do you know you put a spell on me.

[Chorus]

Crazy,
Everytime you call my name,
I don't know what to do,
I'm so in love with you.
