Crazy

Javier Colon

Hmmmmmmmm.....hey yea hey...hoooooowhooo....baby, [Verse 1] Kind of like a summer's breeze, you do exactly as you please, drop a brother to his knees just for fun. I think it was the first of May, girl I can't forget the day, right then and there I knew you were the one. Do you think that possibly, you could spend your life with me, cause girl this love is growing, and it's hotter than the sun. [Chorus:] I get a little bit crazy baby, everytime you call my name my heart beats a little bit faster, after, you are in my arms again. Can't try to fight it, won't even try to hide it, emotions falling down like the rain, I can't find the words to explain it, ain't it, crazy how i fall, everytime you call my name. [Verse 2] It's kind of like a work of art, you shot an arrow through my heart, even though we're worlds apart I can't deny, it feels like your apart of me the finish and the start of me, girl you are the heart of me, and that's no lie, did I mention that I love you so, and I just want the world to know, if I could you know I would write your name across the sky. [Chorus] Crazy, crazy... Evertime that your close to me, I lose control of my sanity, everynight, everyday, every word and you say, girl do you know you put a spell on me. [Chorus] Crazy, Everytime you call my name, I don't know what to do, I'm so in love with you.
