

Slow Motion

Javier Colon

Goin in, I knew what I was gettin into
Never thought I'd be so predictable, so weak
Somethin' bout the way she looked at me.
It was the day, she was lookin out the window as she drove by.
Lip gloss, smile and brown eyes.
Everything thing stopped
She was so hot.

The angle of her chin,
the color of her skin.
When she saw me stare
She acted like she didn't care
I didn't say a word, but my intensions were,
To touch her and kiss her
I never thought forever

Have you ever known a girl,
Who could make your world go in slow motion?
Kinda like a movie, that's the way she do me.
Have you ever met somebody who could stop the hands of time and make you wait.
t.
Make you love in slow motion.

Ordinarily, I woulda bounced by day three,
On to the next girl, scroll to delete on my cell phone screen,
But a voice kept callin me.
It was the way, she would whisper in my ear that I was her man.
The slightest little touch of her hand,
Everything stops,
She's got me high.

The angle of her chin,
the color of her skin.
And when she saw me stare
She acted like she didn't care
I didn't say a word, but my intensions were
To touch her, and kiss her

Have you ever known a girl
Who could make your world go in slow motion
Kinda like a movie, that's the way she do me.
Have you ever met somebody who could stop the hands of time and make you wait?
t?
Make you love in slow motion.

She is truly something
I can't believe that I'm love and,
She feels the same way (same way).
She is so amazing.
My heart ain't never breaking,
Cause she's my baby.

I could go on for days (yea yea, yea yea)
Talkin bout her sexy ways (yea yea, yea yea)
Kinda girl that makes me weak (yea yea, yea yea)
Can't believe she wants to be with me

Have you ever known a girl,
Who could make your world go in slow motion?
Kinda like a movie, that's the way she do me.
Have you ever met somebody who could stop the hands of time and make you wait?
Make you love in slow motion.
