

Song For Your Tears

Javier Colon

How am i supposed to let go of this feeling How am i supposed to erase this image of your sweet face When it seems like just yesterday we made a promise of love that i'm about to break How do i walk away after all these years and all i can give is a song for your tears

Now we both know that the light of our love has been fading
When i come home tell you about my day you don't hear a word that i say We carry on like nothings wrong we can change up the words but it's the same old song Now i've got to say what we don't want to hear and all i have left is a song for your tears

We can try to disguise what we're both feelin inside
We learned how to love, we learned how to cry Can we Learn how to say goodbye

So it's done, the card are all out on the table I've packed up my bags; i'm ready to go But theres something i want you to know everyday that we shared i'll never regret and the love that we made i will never forget But all of those days have long dissappeared and all that remains is a song for your tears

All that remains is the heartache and pain
I kno i made a promise to ya baby But i was wrong so wrong i'm so sorry baby, i'm so sorry baby
