

The Most Beautiful Girl In The World

Javier Colon

it was a cool summer night - I was hanging with my friends - you were hanging with your friends and That's when I noticed your smile - unbelievable - was inconceivable how I could ever spend another day - without you in my life - I knew I had to try to find a way to make you mine - I said "Hi" - you said "Hi" - we both were kinda shy didn't have a lot to say - so we went our separate ways knew I'd never be the same - if I didn't see you again cos to me you're the most beautiful girl - in the world - yeah it's true baby there is no one else on this earth - that makes me feel - like you do - baby it's true nothing means anything - if I can't have you there cause no one compares - to the most beautiful girl in the world so I got a second chance - at the laundromat - how 'bout that you remembered my name - was like music to my ears - that's what I wanted to hear was wondering if you had a guy - and if you said yes then I wouldn't be surprised but before you said a thing - I was checking out your hands (and I didn't see a ring) so I asked you on a date - you said you were running late and you never showed up - but how could I give up on you

cos to me you're the most beautiful girl - in the world - yeah it's true baby there is nothing else on this earth - that makes me feel - like you do - baby it's true nothing means anything - baby I swear cause no one compares - to the most beautiful girl in the world

I've tried to let go - but it's far too late cause since I saw your face - I know what I'm missing I keep coming back to the place where we met cos I just can't get myself to move on and forget