

Dilemma

Jay-Jay Johanson

I don't want to be your boyfrined
I don't want to be your husband
And the reason I tell you
I'm already with someone

I don't want to be your best friend
I don't want to be your one night stand
And the reason I tell you
I'm already with someone

And it not that I don't really fancy you
And it not that your not my type of girl but

I don't want to be your next prey
I don't want to be your shoulder to cry on
And the reason I tell you
I'm already with someone

(I don't want to be your boyfrined)
(I don't want to be your husband)
(And the reason I tell you)
(I'm already with someone)

(I don't want to be your best friend)
(I don't want to be your one night stand)
(And the reason I tell you)
(I'm already with someone)

And it not that I don't really fancy you
And it not that your not my type of girl
but

I don't want to be your next prey
I don't want to be your shoulder to cry on
And the reason I tell you
I'm already with someone
