

Far Away

Jay-Jay Johanson

Far away, once so close
But now you're far away
You're still here with me
But not like yesterday, so far
Far away, I hear you breathe
But you're so far away
Once so colourful
But now all turns to grey, so far
It's oh so strange
When centimetres feels like miles
Seconds like hours
Now it's true love has died
No more roads left to try, far away
Far away, long ago
When love was here to stay
Now it's gone
It doesn't matter what we say, so far
Every word is like a knife
But the silence cuts you twice
