

Code Red

Jay Rock

Just the same old same old,
Same feigns in the hood
Chasing the best dope
Project hustling
Chasing and pay so
The ain't dead
You know I had to shake goals
But my domain never switch fucked out no doubt I am living it
They can't claim the Is back learn my scrap
Let me put a wehole in them
I have seen them all betray envy died in my arms for you fuck

Welcome to West California
We ain't scared to upon you
You ain't prepared when it go down
You are already dead about now
Welcome to West California
We ain't scared to upon you
You ain't prepared when it go down
You are already dead about now

The homie told me put your feelings aside
But since I got sign I have been feeling the vibes
Niger playing all day
They ain't been in my shoes niggers kill you when the sun is out
Make sure the gun is out you don't feel me yet
Fine kill your last squad if you live
Your body might need parts right on the top shut to the stars

Welcome to West California
We ain't scared to upon you
You ain't prepared when it go down
You are already dead about now
Welcome to West California
We ain't scared to upon you
You ain't prepared when it go down
You are already dead about now
