

Car Crash

Jaya the Cat

What ever happened to protect and serve
'Cause if you get in their way you get burned
And if your looking for justice don't bother
'Cause in the eyes of the court your just another fuckin proble m
Produce an eye witness, and their just gonna contest that its a conflict of interest
Either way you walk out empty handed
There ain't no free rides in the land of the stranded
You get no love from the system when your poor
They just keep takin' what they want and keep comin back for mo re

Bad luck why fuck is it coming after me?
Car crash in the middle of the street
Bad luck what the fuck are you gonna say?
When there's four fucking cops all up in your face

What ever happened to and justice for all?
Man that ain't nothing but a joke now
Clotheslined by the long arm of the law
By some asshole in a black robe thinking that he's god
And if you try to present a defense
He'll just laugh and charge you with contempt
System set up to further the rich
It ain't justice, it's just big business
And if you want to get ahead man I hope you got connections
'Cause a poor man don't get far in the Babylon system
