Jaya the Cat

My room 3am
music blasting out of that system
Miller light in my hand the only other thing I got is my problems
And when life starts pushing down
I just jack up that stereo
And leave this freakin' town

You know the sound don't belong to anyone
You can take it if you need it
Or just go it alone
There ain't nothing realer in this world
Than when mistress music takes control
And it just keeps pushing me forward

Sun rising through the blinds
Another night I left behind
Neighbors pounding on the wall
But I don't give a fuck at all Turn it up and tune it out
There ain't no sense in listening
To something you don't care about

You know the sound don't belong to anyone
You don't have to justify it
You just take it if you want
And there ain't nothing purer in this world
Then when me and her are just pushing across the floor.
And it just keeps pushing me forward
Forward into something better
