

Late Night Sonic Insurrection

Jaya the Cat

All rise cause this dance is in session
Raise your glass to the rhythm section
Late night sonic insurrection
From the stage to the bar in every direction
Sunrise is knocking at the door
But we ain't moving we ain't going nowhere no
So if you wanna control this you better pack a lunch
Write your address down bring some shades and a toothbrush
Cause you know we ain't never done

So can I get a witness
Cause tonight we're gonna push it to the edge
When everyone is just going to work
We're only going to bed

And it's five in the morning take it to the streets
Outta the dancehall straight to the beach
Come on kid you don't have to preach
I'll see that shot and raise you three
Oh girl, you don't have to stray
Cause we ain't leaving while the music plays
And I can read your future in your bikini line
And let me tell you things gonna be just fine
So just put your hand in mine

And let's have a little dance
Cause tonight we're gonna push it to the edge
When everyone is just going to work
We're only going to bed
