

Unconditional Love

Jaya the Cat

Well I woke up on the floor again in my Adidas suit
Staring at my socks and my shoes in the corner of the room
Sitting in the lobby drinking multivitamin juice
Zoning out the window and I'm watching all the people passing through
You know we're out on a mission
Late night rockers from station to station
Turn on the amps get the dance moving
Shut out the pain, bad vibes and confusion
Don't make no difference we ain't giving in Eastbound to westbound, city to city
Unconditional love is what we bring
So all night till daylight we just keep moving
Sometimes I feel like a zombie
Sometimes I'm just dead on it
Sometimes I feel like I'm living
Sometimes I feel like the living dead
I ain't got much in this life
Said it once gonna say it twice
Out for another night
Ya gotta run the bass man
And pass the mic and it's

All night
So it's straight outta Brockton
Belgrade to Nottingham
Lindau down to Skopje
Limburg to Barcelona
Bangkok to Bretagne
Cardiff to Vienna
Zürich to Berlin
San Juan to the Reeperbahn

Unconditional love is what we bring
So you rewind and you bring it back again
Well I woke up on the floor again in my Adidas suit
Staring at my socks and my shoes in the corner of my room
Sitting in the van acquiring satellites
Zoning out the window and I'm watching all the people passing by
