

If You Were Losing Him To Me

Jean Shepard

You say I'm bein' selfish 'cause I won't set him free
But once I've given him to you, what is left for me?
You say that he don't love me but now that may be true
But if you were losing him to me I wonder what you'd do

If you were losing everything that made your world go round
Would you hang on till he'd forgot the other love he'd found?
Or would you really let him go the way you want me to?
If you were losing him to me I wonder what you'd do

You've had your stolen moments but how can they compare
With the many ups and downs that we have had to share?
I want him to be happy even if it means with you
But if you were losing him to me, I wonder what you'd do

If you were losing everything that made your world go round
Would you hang on till he'd forgot the other love he'd found?
Or would you really let him go the way you want me to?
If you were losing him to me I wonder what you'd do
