Loose Talk

Jean Shepard

So long we've been married, last burden we've carried Though fate kept us humble and made our love true But plans that we'd make up, someone seems to break up Oh, darling, what else can we do?

We may have to leave here to find peace of mind, dear Some place where we can live a life of our own For I know you love me and happy we could be If some folks would leave us alone

When I go out walking there's lots of loose talking They say we're unhappy and we'll break apart But darling, it's not true because I still love you And I do it all of my heart

We may have to leave here to find peace of mind, dear Some place where we can live a life of our own For I know you love me and happy we could be If some folks would leave us alone

They say you are leaving, that you are deceiving But you tell me they say the same about me But we'll show them there on that loose talk we'll do harm And hope that's the truth they will see

We may have to leave here to find peace of mind, dear Some place where we can live a life of our own For I know you love me and happy we could be If some folks would leave us alone If some folks would leave us alone
