

Under Suspicion

Jean Shepard

Every time you see me talkin' to a boy that I once knew
Why am I under suspicion of being untrue
When I have to visit someone living in another town
Why am I under suspicion of running around
I swear I'm not guilty I swear I've been true
Why can't you believe that I love only you
If you want the loving romance that your heart is dreaming of Don't hold me under suspicion and you'll hold my love

Every time you see me talkin'...
