

Nightmare

Jeanette

Lying down here in my darkness
It's so cold and I'm oh so helpless
I don't know when it will stop hurting
I feel so terrified, I'm in a strange world

It's too fast, too close, too sad
Snakes are biting in my head
I'm feeling pressure all over my body
Over my body now

Nightmare, nightmare
I'm choking in midair
I'm afraid of not waking up
I'm lost in a scary spot
But this dream is so horrible
Where is my beloved fairy tale?
I do not dare to open my eyes again
Please let the morning take me home

I foresee your hand in mine are you still there, it appears to be quiet
I try to scream but it is a dumb scream and you just laughed me to scorn, it is just a dream

It's too fast, too close, too sad
snakes are biting in my head
over my body now

Nightmare, nightmare
I'm choking in midair
I'm afraid of not waking up
I'm lost in a scary spot
But this dream is so horrible
Where is my beloved fairy tale?
I do not dare to open my eyes again
Please let the morning take me home
