

Darling Days

Jeannie C. Riley

If I never love again I won't feel cheated
You gave me more than I knew how to use
From the day we met my journey was completed
Even though my autumn years won't be with you

Seems like yesterday we called each other darling
Seems like yesterday you reached and touched my hand
I'd love to hear you say good morning darling
Of what I'd give to live those darling days again

Today my heart survives on love that's borrowed
From all the happy yesterdays we knew
If I knew for sure the world would end tomorrow
I'd have to spend my last day loving you

Seems like yesterday...
Of what I'd give to live those darling days again
