

Put It Off Until Tomorrow

Jeannie Seely

You say our love is over that you have found another
And now you're goin' away
But leave me tomorrow oh please you've hurt me enough today
You've hurt me enough today I can't believe the words you say
I must accept the fact you won't be coming back
Oh stay just one more day loneliness isn't far away
Put it off until tomorrow oh please you've hurt me enough today
