

Wanderin' Man

Jeannie Seely

(A woman can't hold a wanderin' man)
Again the wanderin' back has bid you and you'll soon be on your way
I'm sorry I don't fit in your plans
But I'm not sorry I'd love you so it had to end it's way
A woman can't hold a wanderin' man

Your touch was what I needed and your kiss will always burn
I just hope you'll wander back this way again
Cause life was made for living and the mind was made to learn
A woman can't hold a wanderin' man

Wanderin' man I loved you I still do you once loved me a little didn't you
God gave you all I have I understand a woman can't hold a wanderin' man [ steel - dobro ]
A woman can't hold a wanderin' man
