

You're gonna see things differently
Look at it from my POV
I'm gonna watch you watch me joyfully
Woo, woo, from my POV

I'm gonna party hard to the morning light
I'm gonna get rocked up cause a scene tonight
Make you turn the camera round put your eye to lens
Gonna give your best performance, no offense

You're gonna see things differently
Look at it from my POV
I'm gonna watch you watch me joyfully
Woo, woo, from my POV

'Cause girl I can chew you up like a bubblegum
I'll make you pop and spit you out, when I've had my fun
Did you really think it over carefully.
When you ran around and thought that you were me

You're gonna see things differently
Look at it from my POV
I'm gonna watch you watch me joyfully
Woo, woo, from my POV

You're gonna see things differently
Look at it from my POV
I'm gonna watch you watch me joyfully
Woo, woo, from my POV

Please don't hate me
But you can't break me
Just zoom in closer
Tonight, tonight, tonight

You're gonna see things differently
Look at it from my POV
I'm gonna watch you watch me joyfully
Woo, woo, from my POV
