

Somebody's Falling

Jeff Bates

Somebody's picking up flowers
Got a real nice bottle of wine
Somebody's counting down the hours
Can't hardly wait till it's time

Somebody, somebody's falling
Somebody's falling in love
Two lucky lovers
Finding each other
Somebody's falling in love

Somebody's taking a hot bath
Making sure her makeup's just right
She's about to slip on that hot dress, yeah
Making sure it happens tonight

Somebody, somebody's falling
Somebody's falling in love
The flames of the fire
Getting hotter and higher
Somebody's falling in love

He feels like a man when she comes around
She feels like a woman when he lays her down

Somebody, somebody's falling
Somebody's falling in love

Somebody, somebody's falling
Somebody's falling in love
Anyone can see it
Girl, it ain't no secret
Somebody's falling in love
