

I Ain't Superstitious

Jeff Beck

Ain't superstitious
Black cat crossed my trail
I ain't superstitious
But a black cat crossed my trail
Bad luck ain't got me so far
And I won't let it stop me now

The dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood
And that ain't all
Dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood
Mmm-mmm
This is a mean old world to live in
And I can't face it all by myself, at all

And, dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood
The dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood
I got a feelin' about the future
And it ain't too good, I know that

I know, I know, I know

Ain't superstitious
But a black cat crossed my trail
I said it so one time before
Ain't superstitious
A black cat crossed my trail
Bad luck ain't got me so far
And you know I ain't gonna let it stop me now
Come on
