

Lose Myself with You

Jeff Beck

You don't care you don't worry about my problems
You don't have the nerve to question why
Baby you don't care just what I'm doing
I got to lose myself myself with you

If there was a way I could explain it
It would surely find it's own way through
You know that I would try hard to make it
Just to let my real self shine on you
I got to lose myself myself with you ba ba ba ba

Sometimes left alone I get to wondering
Trying hard not knowing what to think
Could these thoughts and feeling be about ya
I got to lose myself myself with you ba ba ba ba
