

Beginning 2 End

Jeff Scott Soto

Tears in your eyes like a diamond on your face
Leaving behind all the memories you've embraced
It's all so uneasy, this fear of being on your own
It's all the illusion of being alone

The only solution is to hold your head up high
Sad's the emotion you must fight

Though time is upon us
We don't have to say goodbye
Instead there's tomorrow we'll see you again
Through all the confusion
We won't ever say goodbye
We'll see you tomorrow, beginning to end

Where are you now, have you finally found your way?
Do you still remember all the things you tried to say?
Now all the expressions are blowing in the wind
& all of your feelings are strangers within

But don't you surrender, don't you ever shed a tear
Love survives

Though time is upon us
We don't have to say goodbye
Instead there's tomorrow we'll see you again
Through all the confusion
We won't ever say goodbye
We'll see you tomorrow, beginning to end

Now don't you surrender, don't you ever shed a tear
Love survives

Though time is upon us
We don't have to say goodbye
Instead there's tomorrow we'll see you again
Through all the confusion
We won't ever say goodbye
We'll see you tomorrow, beginning to end
