

Believe In Me

Jeff Scott Soto

Just relax & stay a while
I feel the need to show u my design (my design for you)
Ease concern, my curious child
I plan to take u to a whole new world (new world just for to)

If u believe in me tonight
You're not the vow that I will fight
To do everything I need to make you understand (this I swear to you)
Sacred as everything I feel
I am the love that u must steal
& together we can seek the promised land

Nothing I won't do (oh no, my love)
My love belongs to you
Say you wanna come along with me for a ride
Tell me that you wanna know the meaning inside
You'll never really know
I'll never let you go
All the signs are there to let me in
I feel the time is right, now let begin

In the shadows of divine
I live to hold your body to close to mine (each & every day)
I owe it all to the wishing well
I used to doubt, but any fool can tell (what more can I say?)

If you believe in me tonight
You're not the vow that I will fight
To do everything I need to make you understand (this I swear to you)
Sacred as everything I feel
I am the love that you must steal
& together we can seek the promised land

Nothing I won't do (oh no, my love)
My love belongs to you
Say you wanna come along with me for a ride
Tell me that u wanna know the meaning inside
You'll never really know
I'll never let you go
All the signs are there to let me in
I feel the time is right, now let begin

Won't you let me into the dreams you know so well
& as far as I can tell?
You can believe in me, believe you me
I could never let you down, I will always be around
Believe in me

If you believe in me 2night
You're not the vow that I will fight
To do everything I need to make you understand (this I swear to you)
Sacred as everything I feel
I am the love that you must steal
& together we can seek the promised land

Believe in me tonight
