You come when you want You take what you need and then you're off Gone with the wind I wonder when this will end When will you stay with me For more than a day? Is there a chance Or am I asking for a little bit too much again? Is there are a ray of hope? Is it impossible? Don't leave me hanging on when All you have to do is let me know Let me know what's going on inside of your heart All you have to do is let me know Let me know if I should start changing my life, changing my life Yes, I'm to blame 'Cause I let you have it your way Is it too late? Down to the road to heartache To tell you the truth Baby, it's left up to you What will it be Just say the word and I'll be yours for eternity Is there a ray of hope? Give me a yes or no Don't leave me hanging on when All you have to do is let me know Let me know what's going on inside of your heart All you have to do is let me know Let me know if I should start changing my life, changing my life So many nights I sat alone up and I've cried I'm real but I did, so many tears Waiting for you Not knowing what else to do But never again, ohh no Maybe I'm asking for a little bit too much again I just need a ray of hope If it's impossible Don't leave me hanging on, when something's wrong then Oh, all you have to do is let me know Let me know what's going on inside of your heart All you have to do is let me know Let me know if I should start changing my life

All you have to do is let me know

Let me know what's going on inside of your heart All you have to do is let me know, baby All you have to do is let me know
