

Stand On

Jehro

Paint your face, Pretty young Maria
This filthy place Will seem a little cleaner
Smile on, Smile on, Smile on

A soldier's brave, But pour some more tequila
You're dancing while, We drink away the fear
Dance on, Dance on, Dance on

Desire, We trust you, To keep it alight
Delight us tonight, Delight us tonight

A ghostly boy, Drinks huddled in the corner
A face so fresh, They're takin'to the slaughter
Head on, Head on, Head on

You lift his face, And stare into the mirror
Your night's for sale, And now your fate is clear
Dance on, Dance on

Behold, What lights up your eyes, Desire
Though fate may, Have struck off your life
Defy it tonight, Defy it tonight
